Not only is this one of three games I could find on steam called Dark matter, it has the distinction of being the only one where the main character's NAME is "Dark Matter". Incredibly tedious gameplay. Terrible enemies. Just no. <https://youtu.be/hFamYF6Y0Gc>. Better than fuzecat. i dont like it. 5$ for this. It's a fun game, but I don't like the controls and wish it had full controller support. Having to switch between mouse and controller while navigating the menu sucks. I wish the controls were more like Asteroids and you rotated your ship rather than moving in the direction you point the controller. Maybe I'm too oldschool, as I seem to be the only one not to like the controls. I did receive the game for free from the Giveaways thread on the Steam forums, so I can't complain.. It's asteroids. if it's a dollar it isn't bad, but I've played plenty of free flash games with more depth.
